FLOOR DEBATE

April 3, 2002 LB 276, 966

CLERK: Mr. President, LB 276. Senator Erdman, I have Enrollment and Review amendments. (AM7190, Legislative Journal page 1030.)

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Erdman, you're recognized for a motion for the adoption of those amendments.

SENATOR ERDMAN: Mr. Speaker, I move the adoption of the E & R amendments to LB 276.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: The question before the body is the adoption of the E & R amendments. All those in favor say aye. Those opposed say nay. They're adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Redfield. Senator, I have a note you want to withdraw AM3215.

SENATOR REDFIELD: That's correct.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Redfield would move to amend AM3275. (Legislative Journal page 1111.)

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Redfield, you're recognized to open on that amendment.

SENATOR REDFIELD: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body. LB 276 is the identity theft bill that received your overwhelming support. When we were discussing the budget the other day, Senator Preister brought to us an issue that we discussed at some length dealing with private contracts. In his research he had asked for a public document of those lists of contracts that had been let by the state, and he was, in fact, given a list that included some individuals' names. On that list were also their Social Security Numbers. I had a number of people come to me on the floor knowing my interest in privacy issues and make sure that I was aware of that fact and really were looking for a solution as to what we could do to guarantee that this did not happen again. As it happens, I had introduced this year LB 966 into the Government and Military Affairs Committee. I had not thought of it in terms of this bill. But
